

Mammoth wasp

Megascolia maculata

insect

It lives in gardens and woods.

It is a parasitoid species:
the female lays the eggs inside
the rhinoceros beetle larvae.

It is the biggest wasp found in Europe and the female can reach 40 mm in length.